TELEGRAMS TO THE NEW YORK HERALD.

The following special despatch to the Huntro has been received from our correspondent in the Spanish capital:-

MADRID, May 9, 1873. During the battle which was just recently fought between the Carlist forces under the personal command of General Dorregarry, and the government troops the soldiers of the Republic were totally routed, with the loss of two hundred men killed.

THE SPOILS OF VICTORY. Many prisoners, small arms and one can non were captured by the victors, and Colonel and place against it an official despatch which plleges the defeat of Dorregarry. GENERAL NOUVILLAS ORDERED TO NAVARRE.

Novarra, the commander of the loyalists, was made prisoner. A COUNTER CLAIM. The Spanish officials discredit the Carlist report of a victory for the Bourbonist chief.

General Nouvilas goes to Navarre. In the meantime Señor Figueras will act as Minister of War.

MINISTERIAL BECONCILIATION. The misunderstanding between General Velarde and Minister of War Nouvillas has been amicably adjusted.

GOOD NEWS FROM THE FRONT. General Velarde, in a telegraphic despatch to the government, says: - "Many Carlists are surrendering." He also states that he is making preparations to order a levy en masse to raise forces to assist his troops in crushing the insurrection.

The bands of Carlists commanded by Campo and Gomez have been totally defeated by the national forces. Many of the insurgents, including their leaders, were killed.

MILITARY MUTTNY. The government army serving in Biscay is

In a state of mutiny in consequence of the hon-receipt of pay.

Financial Panic and Wild Excitement on the Vienna Bourse-Mercantile Failure-Speculators in Appeal to the Government-A Rothschild Insulted on 'Change.

TELEGRAM TO THE NEW YORK HERALD.

VIENNA, May 9, 1873. There was a wild panic on the Bourse to-day. It was caused by the failure of a leading firm which threw a large amount of stock on the market

So great was the excitement that business became impossible. Speculators have petitioned the government to order a suspension of transac tions for several days and adopt measures to mitigate the crisis

During the height of the panic Rothschild and Schey were publicly insulted on the Bourse.

Arkansas Bent on Further Trouble-Another of Governor Hadley's Old Sheriffs Attacked and Shot At-Vance Has to Flee on Horseback-A County Clerk also Banished from Hempstead County.

LITTLE ROCK, Ark., May 9, 1873. Serious troubles are again breaking out in this State. On Sunday, May 4, James M. Vance, the Sheriff elected in Hempstead county, arrived in Washington, the county seat, from Little Rock He was expected to arrive on Saturday, and a body of thirty or forty men had collected with the intention of killing him. He was warned of their intentions, however, by several citizens, who ad rised him to leave the county. They had previousy given orders prohibiting all negroes from entering the town, while literally imprisoning those already there.

Danger was imminent, and Vance, terrorstricken, fied on horseback. The roads were all closely guarded. He started down the Car road, and crossing over through the woods in the direction of Arkadelphia was surprised by a party of these desperados, who chased him for two miles, firing several shots after him, but without effect. Vance ultimately escaped to Arkadelphia.

Samuels (colored), the County Clerk, was driver off several weeks ago, and is not allowed to re turn.

The cause of all the trouble in this case is because Vance was appointed Sheriff by Governor Hadley in 1871. Being a Little Rock man, the appointment was unpopular and caused some offen sive comment. He was elected Sheriff at the last election. The Probate Judge refused to approve his bond, but the Legislature passed a joint reso-lution approving it, so that Vance was returned triumphantly. The action of the Governor is anxiously awaited.

THE MODOCS RETREAT. Herald Special Despatch from the Lava Beds.

CAPTAIN JACK CHANGES HIS BASE.

The Indians Depart in the Direction of Clear Lake.

ATTACK ON A WAGON TRAIN.

Three Men Wounded, Seventeen Horses Captured and the Train Burned.

SCHONCHIN STILL ALIVE.

Bogus Charley Appears and Talks with a Citizen.

LAVA BEDS, March 9, 1873. The Modocs have vacated their position, and are supposed to have retreated in the direction of Clear Lake. Their trail indicated Sharp Fighting Between the Insurgents and their being in possession of about forty horses, and so the settlers will have to be on the alert for raids.

THE INDIANS PURSUED.

Captain Hasbrouck, of the Fourth artillery, with his mounted battery, and Captain Jack son, with B Troop, First cavalry, and sixty Warm Spring Indians, left Colonel Mason's camp this morning on their trial. They have taken five days' rations.

SQUAW EMISSABLES AGAIN.

The two squaws, Artenie Chokus and One Eyed Dixie, who had been sent to reconnoitre the Modoc position, returned on Wednesday with news that the Indians had deserted their camp. Donald McKay and a party of Warm Spring Indians were immediately sent out to ascertain the truth of their statement, and they returned yesterday with intelligence that the Indians had moved camp.

LIEUTENANT CRANSTON'S BODY BECOVERED The bodies of Lieutenant Arthur Cranston and the other missing soldiers were found among the rocks.

Donald McKay states that he found a hole in the rocks that had evidently contained water, but which, having given out, the Indians were forced to leave their position. The embers and ashes of numerous fires were found through the rocks, and also the charred remains of two of their warriors, whom they had endeavored to burn up. Judging from the tracks McKay is of the opinion that the Modocs have at least forty horses.

ATTACE ON & WAGON TRAIN

A wagon train, going from Lieutenant Boyle's camp to Colonel Mason's camp, was attacked on Wednesday by the Modocs. There was only a small escort and they escaped, with three wounded. The Modocs captured seventeen horses and burned the wagons.

CONDITION OF THE WOUNDED.

Thirty-three of our wounded started to-day for Fort Klamath, escorted by a segeant and

BRIGHAM YOUNG'S INDIAN POLICY.

The Aged Prophet of Utah Gives His Views of Indians-Why Peace Should Be Restored at any Cest-The Modocs Only Carrying Out the Plan of the Whites.

SALT LARE CITY, May 8, 1873. The correspondent of an Omaha paper yesterday interviewed Brigham Young and obtained his views of the Indian question. Mr. Young said that in 1847 he settled in this country with 140 souls and for thousands of miles around them the land was infested with hostile Indians; that he gained their friendship by acting honorably with then and never stooping to deception ; when he made a promise he kept it; that the bostility of the Indians had been augmented by the robberies committed by unscrupulous agents of the government; that they had lost all faith in the honor and integrity of government officials; that the Modocs did to the Commissioners just what they thought was being endeavored to be done to them, and that peace should be made at any cost or the entire West would be embroiled in a general Indian war.

When the correspondent asked Mr. Young whether he endorsed President Grant's Indian policy he replied :- "I endorse the policy so far as it corrects abuses and tends to a lasting peace and to the civilization of the Indians."

He also said that an Indian war would destroy the commerce, capital and immigration between Missouri and the Pacific coast, and retard the settlement of the country for twenty years, which would in itself be a great calamity.
