

SPAIN.

Insurrectionist Proclamation of the Formation of a Cantonal Government.

Parliamentist Secession To Be Treated as Treason to the Republic.

Naval Movement Under the Insurgent Flag.

Sailors' Demand on the City of Almeria Under Threat of Bombardment.

Bilbao Released from the Carlist Blockade.

A British Squadron Expected Off the Coast.

Project of Territorial Cession to France.

TELEGRAM TO THE NEW YORK HERALD. MADRID, July 30, 1873. The official journal of the insurgents at Cartagena announces the appointment of a Provisional Directory for the Canton of Murcia, of which the following are the members:—Señores Arana, Ferrer, Carlos, Savallé and Rubio.

RULERS UNDER THE "RED" FLAG. The government of the canton is constituted as follows:— General Contreras, President of the Council and Minister of Marine.

SEÑOR FERRER, Minister of State. SEÑOR CARLOS, Minister of War. SEÑOR SAVALLÉ, Minister of Public Works. SEÑOR RUBIO, Minister of Finance. REVOLUTIONARY EFFORT FOR PARLIAMENTARY UNITY. A bill has been introduced in the Cortes authorizing the prosecution of Deputies who rebel against measures adopted by that body.

NAVAL OPERATIONS OF THE INSURGENTS. A despatch from Almeria, on the Mediterranean, says several of the Spanish war vessels seized by the insurgents at Cartagena have arrived off that port.

CONTRERAS IS IN COMMAND OF THE INSURGENT FLEET OFF ALMERIA. He demands a contribution of 50,000 piastres and the evacuation of the city by the Civil Guard, and threatens a bombardment in case of refusal. The city authorities have refused to comply, and are preparing for defence. There is ground for hope that the foreign men-of-war in the harbor will interfere and prevent the horrors of a bombardment.

A BRITISH SQUADRON LOOKED FOR OFF THE COAST. A large British squadron is expected to arrive daily off the Spanish coast.

"REDS" REWARDS FOR SERVICE IN THE CAUSE. The insurgent Committee of Public Safety at Cartagena announce that a medal of honor and a pension will be given to all persons who take up arms in their cause.

CITIZEN CONSERVATISM. The authorities of Loja, province of Navarra, have expelled 110 members of the International Society from that town.

BATTLES IN THE FIELD. An engagement has taken place between a force of National troops under General Navarro and a Carlist band entrenched at Marededes. The insurgents were driven from the town and 700 Republican prisoners who were confined therein released.

BILBAO FREE FROM THE BOURBONS. It is rumored that General Concha is to be appointed Captain General of Madrid.

The blockade of Bilbao by the Carlists has been raised and communication with that city is now open.

TERRITORIAL CESSION TALKED OF. A proposition is mooted to cede to France all of the province of Navarra lying north of the River Ebro.

FRANCE.

Popular Idea of the Restoration of a Monarchy—President MacMahon's Position—Political Party Campaigning.

TELEGRAM TO THE NEW YORK HERALD. PARIS, July 30, 1873. It is commonly reported that Marshal MacMahon will retain the Presidency of the Republic but six months longer, when he will resign and return to the command of the army.

It is considered certain that the republican form of government will be succeeded by a monarchy, and it is deemed essential that Marshal MacMahon, who possesses great influence with the army, should be in command upon the occasion of the change.

PARTY PREPARATION FOR AN ELECTION CAMPAIGN. The Extreme Left have determined to agitate the question of the dissolution of the Assembly in the provinces during the recess, and are making preparations for a vigorous campaign.

PATENTS' PROTECTION.

Preparations for the Assemblage of the Congress in Vienna.

TELEGRAM TO THE NEW YORK HERALD. VIENNA, Austria, July 30, 1873. The International Congress which has been called to meet in this city to discuss means for the protection of patent rights, will assemble on the 4th of August.

The labors of the Preparatory Committee are nearly concluded. The approaching International Patent Congress, which was at first called to be held on the 14th of August, is noticed by the Vienna papers, and creates a stir among the inventors at the Exhibition. The imperial management has appointed a commission to arrange the preliminary business. The Congress will be composed of manufacturers, scientific artisans, political economists and other experts. The language used at the Congress will be German, but English, French and Hebrew will be admitted. Communications in advance of the Congress are to be addressed to the chief manager, Mr. J. J. Wesseler, residing at the corner of the Congress building, each of which may appoint a special delegate.

ENGLAND.

TELEGRAM TO THE NEW YORK HERALD. LONDON, July 30, 1873. The rate of discount for three months' bills in the open market is (2 1/2 P. M.) 3/4 per cent below the Bank of England rate.

AGRICULTURIST REPORT. The weather to-day is fair and favorable to the crops.

BOULL RACE. Brown, of Halifax, to Row John Eglin for $3,000 a Side.

HALIFAX, July 30, 1873. Brown accepted a challenge to-day from Eglin, of New York, to row a race in Bedford Harbor for $3,000 a side, being the same terms offered by Brown to Eglin some time ago.

MEXICO.

Cabinet Project for the Regulation of the Tariff and Frontier Trade.

TELEGRAM TO THE NEW YORK HERALD. MATAMOROS, July 30, 1873. Late advices from the City of Mexico state that a proposition will be made by the government to Congress, which meets in September, to modify the law in regard to the Zona Libre, restraining the free importation of merchandise under it to the ports of Matamoros and Nueva Laredo, and requiring the frontier towns, which have heretofore enjoyed the privilege of free importations, to receive such goods as may be consumed at these places through Matamoros and Nueva Laredo to prevent the accumulation of large quantities of free goods; also many different ports on the frontier, whence goods are smuggled into the interior of Mexico or the United States.

CUBA.

TELEGRAM TO THE NEW YORK HERALD. HAVANA, July 30, 1873. Slaves have increased in value since the promulgation by the Home Government of the decree declining to make any more reforms in Cuba while the insurrection lasts.

MRS. BRIGHAM NO. 17. The Documents Claiming a Divorce, Alimony and Large Fees—How the Prophet Received the Papers with Dignity.

SALT LAKE CITY, July 30, 1873. The papers in the case of Anna Eliza Webb Young, praying for a divorce from Brigham Young, were personally served yesterday. The Prophet seemed undisturbed, and passed the documents over to his secretary. The following are the main points in the complaint:—

The plaintiff avers she is the wife of defendant; was married on the 21st of April, 1853; has two children by a former husband; has no personal property or means of living; for six years after her marriage defendant lived with her; since then he has neglected her, and she has been obliged to support and take care of her children on a farm four miles from Salt Lake, where she had for an only companion her mother; had to do menial work, dressing coarsely and tending badly; defendant visited her occasionally and never remained over half an hour; treated her with scorn and contempt, and exacted the tithing of the farm; in the Fall of 1872, by direction of defendant, plaintiff took up her residence in Salt Lake City, which she has since done; defendant has since that time supported and fed violence from defendant; has called upon defendant frequently for maintenance, but has been refused; is in no way provided for; has been obliged to sell her furniture to meet current expenses.

She sues for divorce on account of neglect and non-support; prays for alimony, which she estimates at $400.00 a month. She prays for lawyers' fees of $20.00, of which $6.00 are to be paid down and the balance to be paid on the day of termination of the suit; she meanwhile to receive $1,000 per month for support. She finally prays that the sum of $200,000 be set aside for defendant's estate and paid to her as alimony.

The reply is set down for August 5. Judge Emerson will probably hold Court.

DESCENT ON A GAMBLING HOUSE.

"Fatty" Walsh's Old Place Again Broken Up—A Polander Taken in by the Skin Game—Loggings at Police Headquarters.

On the 22d instant a man called at Police Headquarters and asked to see the Inspector of Police. He was shown into Inspector Dilks' room, and stated to that gentleman that on the evening of the 19th instant as he was going down Broadway he met a well dressed young man, who appeared to have nothing particular to do, and asked him the way to Canal street. Instead of answering his question the young man began talking to him on other subjects, and after a short conversation asked him if he would not take a drink.

Having had a few drinks during the evening the stranger consented, and the young man suggested that they play a game of cards for the drinks. The stranger, who gave his name as A. Zakozewski, agreed to this, and the young man took him to the well known gambling house at 692 Broadway, formerly kept by Fatty Walsh, but now run by a notorious party known as "Long Mike."

On reaching the door of this den the young man told the stranger to ring the bell and he would be in immediately. He looked on at the game for some time, and then he was asked by one of the men in the room if he would not return him to go to the same place. Zakozewski went to 692 Broadway and asked the proprietor to return him to the same place. He was told to return him to the same place, and he did so.

Inspector Dilks asked the complainant if he could identify any of the persons who were concerned in the game, and on his answering in the affirmative the former told him that he would see what he could do for him. He then went to the police station and called on the Chief Clerk, and placed the case in their hands, instructing them to go with Mr. Zakozewski and get out a warrant for the arrest of the persons who were concerned in the game, who issued a warrant for the arrest of the persons who were concerned in the game, and on his answering in the affirmative the former told him that he would see what he could do for him.

It was found that the box used in the game was a "skin game." The prisoners were locked up in one of the cells, and will be taken to Police Headquarters to-day.

A BATCH OF MARYLAND MURDERERS.

BALTIMORE, July 30, 1873. In the Circuit Court for Washington county at Hagerstown to-day Joseph Davis was sentenced to death for the murder of Abraham Lynn in Carroll county in April, 1872. This case has been tried once in Carroll county and once in Washington county and been twice through the Court of Appeals. Lynn was an old miller with whom Davis was in employ, and Davis murdered him for what was supposed to be a box of money.

The criminal's conduct in jail has been remarkably jovial, and he endeavored to put on a facetious aspect to the proceedings to-day, although there is no hope that he will escape the gallows.

This makes five men now under sentence of death in Maryland.

IN FLAMES.

Burning of a Portion of the United States Appraiser's Warehouse.

THREE ALARMS SENT OVER THE WIRES.

An Emuete in the Vicinity of Tenements.

Energetic Action of the Firemen—The Damage Done—A $575,000 Supper for the Flames—Washed Out by the Engines.

About ten o'clock last night smoke was discovered issuing from the third floor of the Appraiser's warehouse, rented by R. P. Getty & Sons, 119 Greenwich street, in the rear of Trinity church. As soon as the first alarm was sounded the fire-engines and hook and ladder companies came quickly to the spot, but by that time, brief as it was, the flames had gained such ascendancy as to cause a panic among the residents of the tenement houses in the vicinity of Thomas street, who, thinking the flames were reaching the roof of Trinity street and carried out their semi-somnolent children in a state of nudity. The hoses were scarcely screwed on to the hydrants ere the flames jutted out from the windows of the building, the crimson jets taking up with

THE SECOND ALARM. Forked and lurid tongues everything consumable that came within their reach. The building was formally intended for a pork-packing establishment, but had been converted into a storage warehouse for bonded goods. There were costly silks, curiosities from far-off climes, merchandise, valuable and dutiable, stored upon those floors; but the democratic fire, which was no respecter of costly imports, seemed to take a savage delight in wrecking and consuming everything that came across its path.

Sergeant Ferris, who is at present acting captain of the Twenty-seventh precinct, was promptly on hand. Ladders were drawn and the predatory populace were thereby deterred from gleaming from a field they had not sown. As the lurid flames leaped over half an hour, the firemen were kept busy in the midnight air, scattering with their force and their spray the flame-encumbered beams, until a myriad sparks soared skyward, telling the waking world of a disaster dire and dreadful.

THE THIRD ALARM. Forked and lurid tongues everything consumable that came within their reach. The building was formally intended for a pork-packing establishment, but had been converted into a storage warehouse for bonded goods. There were costly silks, curiosities from far-off climes, merchandise, valuable and dutiable, stored upon those floors; but the democratic fire, which was no respecter of costly imports, seemed to take a savage delight in wrecking and consuming everything that came across its path.

Sergeant Ferris, who is at present acting captain of the Twenty-seventh precinct, was promptly on hand. Ladders were drawn and the predatory populace were thereby deterred from gleaming from a field they had not sown. As the lurid flames leaped over half an hour, the firemen were kept busy in the midnight air, scattering with their force and their spray the flame-encumbered beams, until a myriad sparks soared skyward, telling the waking world of a disaster dire and dreadful.

THE SECOND ALARM. Forked and lurid tongues everything consumable that came within their reach. The building was formally intended for a pork-packing establishment, but had been converted into a storage warehouse for bonded goods. There were costly silks, curiosities from far-off climes, merchandise, valuable and dutiable, stored upon those floors; but the democratic fire, which was no respecter of costly imports, seemed to take a savage delight in wrecking and consuming everything that came across its path.

Sergeant Ferris, who is at present acting captain of the Twenty-seventh precinct, was promptly on hand. Ladders were drawn and the predatory populace were thereby deterred from gleaming from a field they had not sown. As the lurid flames leaped over half an hour, the firemen were kept busy in the midnight air, scattering with their force and their spray the flame-encumbered beams, until a myriad sparks soared skyward, telling the waking world of a disaster dire and dreadful.

THE THIRD ALARM. Forked and lurid tongues everything consumable that came within their reach. The building was formally intended for a pork-packing establishment, but had been converted into a storage warehouse for bonded goods. There were costly silks, curiosities from far-off climes, merchandise, valuable and dutiable, stored upon those floors; but the democratic fire, which was no respecter of costly imports, seemed to take a savage delight in wrecking and consuming everything that came across its path.

Sergeant Ferris, who is at present acting captain of the Twenty-seventh precinct, was promptly on hand. Ladders were drawn and the predatory populace were thereby deterred from gleaming from a field they had not sown. As the lurid flames leaped over half an hour, the firemen were kept busy in the midnight air, scattering with their force and their spray the flame-encumbered beams, until a myriad sparks soared skyward, telling the waking world of a disaster dire and dreadful.

THE SECOND ALARM. Forked and lurid tongues everything consumable that came within their reach. The building was formally intended for a pork-packing establishment, but had been converted into a storage warehouse for bonded goods. There were costly silks, curiosities from far-off climes, merchandise, valuable and dutiable, stored upon those floors; but the democratic fire, which was no respecter of costly imports, seemed to take a savage delight in wrecking and consuming everything that came across its path.

Sergeant Ferris, who is at present acting captain of the Twenty-seventh precinct, was promptly on hand. Ladders were drawn and the predatory populace were thereby deterred from gleaming from a field they had not sown. As the lurid flames leaped over half an hour, the firemen were kept busy in the midnight air, scattering with their force and their spray the flame-encumbered beams, until a myriad sparks soared skyward, telling the waking world of a disaster dire and dreadful.

THE THIRD ALARM. Forked and lurid tongues everything consumable that came within their reach. The building was formally intended for a pork-packing establishment, but had been converted into a storage warehouse for bonded goods. There were costly silks, curiosities from far-off climes, merchandise, valuable and dutiable, stored upon those floors; but the democratic fire, which was no respecter of costly imports, seemed to take a savage delight in wrecking and consuming everything that came across its path.

Sergeant Ferris, who is at present acting captain of the Twenty-seventh precinct, was promptly on hand. Ladders were drawn and the predatory populace were thereby deterred from gleaming from a field they had not sown. As the lurid flames leaped over half an hour, the firemen were kept busy in the midnight air, scattering with their force and their spray the flame-encumbered beams, until a myriad sparks soared skyward, telling the waking world of a disaster dire and dreadful.

THE SECOND ALARM. Forked and lurid tongues everything consumable that came within their reach. The building was formally intended for a pork-packing establishment, but had been converted into a storage warehouse for bonded goods. There were costly silks, curiosities from far-off climes, merchandise, valuable and dutiable, stored upon those floors; but the democratic fire, which was no respecter of costly imports, seemed to take a savage delight in wrecking and consuming everything that came across its path.

Sergeant Ferris, who is at present acting captain of the Twenty-seventh precinct, was promptly on hand. Ladders were drawn and the predatory populace were thereby deterred from gleaming from a field they had not sown. As the lurid flames leaped over half an hour, the firemen were kept busy in the midnight air, scattering with their force and their spray the flame-encumbered beams, until a myriad sparks soared skyward, telling the waking world of a disaster dire and dreadful.

THE THIRD ALARM. Forked and lurid tongues everything consumable that came within their reach. The building was formally intended for a pork-packing establishment, but had been converted into a storage warehouse for bonded goods. There were costly silks, curiosities from far-off climes, merchandise, valuable and dutiable, stored upon those floors; but the democratic fire, which was no respecter of costly imports, seemed to take a savage delight in wrecking and consuming everything that came across its path.

Sergeant Ferris, who is at present acting captain of the Twenty-seventh precinct, was promptly on hand. Ladders were drawn and the predatory populace were thereby deterred from gleaming from a field they had not sown. As the lurid flames leaped over half an hour, the firemen were kept busy in the midnight air, scattering with their force and their spray the flame-encumbered beams, until a myriad sparks soared skyward, telling the waking world of a disaster dire and dreadful.

THE SECOND ALARM. Forked and lurid tongues everything consumable that came within their reach. The building was formally intended for a pork-packing establishment, but had been converted into a storage warehouse for bonded goods. There were costly silks, curiosities from far-off climes, merchandise, valuable and dutiable, stored upon those floors; but the democratic fire, which was no respecter of costly imports, seemed to take a savage delight in wrecking and consuming everything that came across its path.

Sergeant Ferris, who is at present acting captain of the Twenty-seventh precinct, was promptly on hand. Ladders were drawn and the predatory populace were thereby deterred from gleaming from a field they had not sown. As the lurid flames leaped over half an hour, the firemen were kept busy in the midnight air, scattering with their force and their spray the flame-encumbered beams, until a myriad sparks soared skyward, telling the waking world of a disaster dire and dreadful.

THE THIRD ALARM. Forked and lurid tongues everything consumable that came within their reach. The building was formally intended for a pork-packing establishment, but had been converted into a storage warehouse for bonded goods. There were costly silks, curiosities from far-off climes, merchandise, valuable and dutiable, stored upon those floors; but the democratic fire, which was no respecter of costly imports, seemed to take a savage delight in wrecking and consuming everything that came across its path.

Sergeant Ferris, who is at present acting captain of the Twenty-seventh precinct, was promptly on hand. Ladders were drawn and the predatory populace were thereby deterred from gleaming from a field they had not sown. As the lurid flames leaped over half an hour, the firemen were kept busy in the midnight air, scattering with their force and their spray the flame-encumbered beams, until a myriad sparks soared skyward, telling the waking world of a disaster dire and dreadful.

THE SECOND ALARM. Forked and lurid tongues everything consumable that came within their reach. The building was formally intended for a pork-packing establishment, but had been converted into a storage warehouse for bonded goods. There were costly silks, curiosities from far-off climes, merchandise, valuable and dutiable, stored upon those floors; but the democratic fire, which was no respecter of costly imports, seemed to take a savage delight in wrecking and consuming everything that came across its path.

Sergeant Ferris, who is at present acting captain of the Twenty-seventh precinct, was promptly on hand. Ladders were drawn and the predatory populace were thereby deterred from gleaming from a field they had not sown. As the lurid flames leaped over half an hour, the firemen were kept busy in the midnight air, scattering with their force and their spray the flame-encumbered beams, until a myriad sparks soared skyward, telling the waking world of a disaster dire and dreadful.

THE THIRD ALARM. Forked and lurid tongues everything consumable that came within their reach. The building was formally intended for a pork-packing establishment, but had been converted into a storage warehouse for bonded goods. There were costly silks, curiosities from far-off climes, merchandise, valuable and dutiable, stored upon those floors; but the democratic fire, which was no respecter of costly imports, seemed to take a savage delight in wrecking and consuming everything that came across its path.

Sergeant Ferris, who is at present acting captain of the Twenty-seventh precinct, was promptly on hand. Ladders were drawn and the predatory populace were thereby deterred from gleaming from a field they had not sown. As the lurid flames leaped over half an hour, the firemen were kept busy in the midnight air, scattering with their force and their spray the flame-encumbered beams, until a myriad sparks soared skyward, telling the waking world of a disaster dire and dreadful.

THE SECOND ALARM. Forked and lurid tongues everything consumable that came within their reach. The building was formally intended for a pork-packing establishment, but had been converted into a storage warehouse for bonded goods. There were costly silks, curiosities from far-off climes, merchandise, valuable and dutiable, stored upon those floors; but the democratic fire, which was no respecter of costly imports, seemed to take a savage delight in wrecking and consuming everything that came across its path.

Sergeant Ferris, who is at present acting captain of the Twenty-seventh precinct, was promptly on hand. Ladders were drawn and the predatory populace were thereby deterred from gleaming from a field they had not sown. As the lurid flames leaped over half an hour, the firemen were kept busy in the midnight air, scattering with their force and their spray the flame-encumbered beams, until a myriad sparks soared skyward, telling the waking world of a disaster dire and dreadful.

THE THIRD ALARM. Forked and lurid tongues everything consumable that came within their reach. The building was formally intended for a pork-packing establishment, but had been converted into a storage warehouse for bonded goods. There were costly silks, curiosities from far-off climes, merchandise, valuable and dutiable, stored upon those floors; but the democratic fire, which was no respecter of costly imports, seemed to take a savage delight in wrecking and consuming everything that came across its path.

Sergeant Ferris, who is at present acting captain of the Twenty-seventh precinct, was promptly on hand. Ladders were drawn and the predatory populace were thereby deterred from gleaming from a field they had not sown. As the lurid flames leaped over half an hour, the firemen were kept busy in the midnight air, scattering with their force and their spray the flame-encumbered beams, until a myriad sparks soared skyward, telling the waking world of a disaster dire and dreadful.

THE SECOND ALARM. Forked and lurid tongues everything consumable that came within their reach. The building was formally intended for a pork-packing establishment, but had been converted into a storage warehouse for bonded goods. There were costly silks, curiosities from far-off climes, merchandise, valuable and dutiable, stored upon those floors; but the democratic fire, which was no respecter of costly imports, seemed to take a savage delight in wrecking and consuming everything that came across its path.

Sergeant Ferris, who is at present acting captain of the Twenty-seventh precinct, was promptly on hand. Ladders were drawn and the predatory populace were thereby deterred from gleaming from a field they had not sown. As the lurid flames leaped over half an hour, the firemen were kept busy in the midnight air, scattering with their force and their spray the flame-encumbered beams, until a myriad sparks soared skyward, telling the waking world of a disaster dire and dreadful.

THE THIRD ALARM. Forked and lurid tongues everything consumable that came within their reach. The building was formally intended for a pork-packing establishment, but had been converted into a storage warehouse for bonded goods. There were costly silks, curiosities from far-off climes, merchandise, valuable and dutiable, stored upon those floors; but the democratic fire, which was no respecter of costly imports, seemed to take a savage delight in wrecking and consuming everything that came across its path.

Sergeant Ferris, who is at present acting captain of the Twenty-seventh precinct, was promptly on hand. Ladders were drawn and the predatory populace were thereby deterred from gleaming from a field they had not sown. As the lurid flames leaped over half an hour, the firemen were kept busy in the midnight air, scattering with their force and their spray the flame-encumbered beams, until a myriad sparks soared skyward, telling the waking world of a disaster dire and dreadful.

THE SECOND ALARM. Forked and lurid tongues everything consumable that came within their reach. The building was formally intended for a pork-packing establishment, but had been converted into a storage warehouse for bonded goods. There were costly silks, curiosities from far-off climes, merchandise, valuable and dutiable, stored upon those floors; but the democratic fire, which was no respecter of costly imports, seemed to take a savage delight in wrecking and consuming everything that came across its path.

Sergeant Ferris, who is at present acting captain of the Twenty-seventh precinct, was promptly on hand. Ladders were drawn and the predatory populace were thereby deterred from gleaming from a field they had not sown. As the lurid flames leaped over half an hour, the firemen were kept busy in the midnight air, scattering with their force and their spray the flame-encumbered beams, until a myriad sparks soared skyward, telling the waking world of a disaster dire and dreadful.

THE THIRD ALARM. Forked and lurid tongues everything consumable that came within their reach. The building was formally intended for a pork-packing establishment, but had been converted into a storage warehouse for bonded goods. There were costly silks, curiosities from far-off climes, merchandise, valuable and dutiable, stored upon those floors; but the democratic fire, which was no respecter of costly imports, seemed to take a savage delight in wrecking and consuming everything that came across its path.

THE LEAN KINE EAT UP LEAN KINE.

Surrender of the Ohio Liberals to the Very Latest Departurists.

ISAAC C. COLLINS NOMINATED FOR GOVERNOR.

The Principles and Platform of the New Party.

INFALLIBILITY OF PARTY DENIED.

Eleven Sounding Resolutions Kicking the Democratic as Well as the Republican Party.

DISGUST OF THE UNTERRIED.

COLUMBUS, Ohio, July 30, 1873. The Liberal Republican Convention met this morning, and adopted the resolutions adopted by their caucus last night, to dissolve their organization as liberal republicans and unite with the Allen county new departurists.

To-day the new party People's Convention assembled at eleven A. M., at Ambros Hall, and was called to order by T. E. Cunningham, leader of the Allen county movement, who made a short speech explanatory of this movement. In the course of his remarks he said that both the prominent parties were in such a condition as to make a new party an absolute necessity for the protection of the people. Neither of the present parties can accomplish the needed reform; one will not, and the other cannot, help the people. Corruption was rampant in all the departments of the government, and it was high time the people took the management of their own affairs into their own hands.

A DEMOCRAT OF THE DEEPEST DYE. GEORGE E. POOR, of Cincinnati, was chosen temporary chairman. He said that, although he was a democrat of the deepest dye, he was willing to join hands with all honest men to stop the stealing in high and low places; to stop the extravagant grants of the public domain, which by right was the property of the people. We know these great evils and come here to devise carefully and well.

After the appointment of the usual committees Judge W. B. Caldwell, of Cincinnati, was called on, and made a speech showing the necessity for a new party, as the means of restoring the government to its former path.

Adjourned until two P. M.

Evening Session. The People's Convention reassembled at two o'clock P. M.—Norton S. Townsend, of Lorain, was made permanent chairman. The Committee on Resolutions reported the following ticket, which was adopted by the convention:—

For Governor, Isaac C. Collins, of Hamilton, democrat; for Lieutenant Governor, A. Saunders Platt, of Logan, liberal; for Attorney General, Seraphim Myers, of Miami, for Auditor, Court J. Judson, of P. B. Ewing, of Fairfield, democrat, and D. W. C. Poulson, of Brown, liberal; Board of Public Works, James McNeill, of Allen, democrat; for State Engineer, John W. Fisher, of Montgomery, democrat; for Comptroller of the Treasury, C. P. L. Butler, of Franklin, liberal.

The following platform was adopted with one dissent:—

Resolved, That we declare against the infallibility of the caucus and convention; that we believe in candidates for office is the high privilege as well as the duty of every citizen, and that we will support from such candidates, and regardless of party affiliations, to support the best men presented for official position.

Resolved, That we believe in the right of every citizen to participate in the government, and that we will support from such candidates, and regardless of party affiliations, to support the best men presented for official position.

Resolved, That we believe in the right of every citizen to participate in the government, and that we will support from such candidates, and regardless of party affiliations, to support the best men presented for official position.

Resolved, That we believe in the right of every citizen to participate in the government, and that we will support from such candidates, and regardless of party affiliations, to support the best men presented for official position.

Resolved, That we believe in the right of every citizen to participate in the government, and that we will support from such candidates, and regardless of party affiliations, to support the best men presented for official position.

Resolved, That we believe in the right of every citizen to participate in the government, and that we will support from such candidates, and regardless of party affiliations, to support the best men presented for official position.

Resolved, That we believe in the right of every citizen to participate in the government, and that we will support from such candidates, and regardless of party affiliations, to support the best men presented for official position.

Resolved, That we believe in the right of every citizen to participate in the government, and that we will support from such candidates, and regardless of party affiliations, to support the best men presented for official position.

Resolved, That we believe in the right of every citizen to participate in the government, and that we will support from such candidates, and regardless of party affiliations, to support the best men presented for official position.

Resolved, That we believe in the right of every citizen to participate in the government, and that we will support from such candidates, and regardless of party affiliations, to support the best men presented for official position.

Resolved, That we believe in the right of every citizen to participate in the government, and that we will support from such candidates, and regardless of party affiliations, to support the best men presented for official position.

Resolved, That we believe in the right of every citizen to participate in the government, and that we will support from such candidates, and regardless of party affiliations, to support the best men presented for official position.

Resolved, That we believe in the right of every citizen to participate in the government, and that we will support from such candidates, and regardless of party affiliations, to support the best men presented for official position.

Resolved, That we believe in the right of every citizen to participate in the government, and that we will support from such candidates, and regardless of party affiliations, to support the best men presented for official position.

Resolved, That we believe in the right of every citizen to participate in the government, and that we will support from such candidates, and regardless of party affiliations, to support the best men presented for official position.

Resolved, That we believe in the right of every citizen to participate in the government, and that we will support from such candidates, and regardless of party affiliations, to support the best men presented for official position.

Resolved, That we believe in the right of every citizen to participate in the government, and that we will support from such candidates, and regardless of party affiliations, to support the best men presented for official position.

Resolved, That we believe in the right of every citizen to participate in the government, and that we will support from such candidates, and regardless of party affiliations, to support the best men presented for official position.

Resolved, That we believe in the right of every citizen to participate in the government, and that we will support from such candidates, and regardless of party affiliations, to support the best men presented for official position.

Resolved, That we believe in the right of every citizen to participate in the government, and that we will support from such candidates, and regardless of party affiliations, to support the best men presented for official position.

Resolved, That we believe in the right of every citizen to participate in the government, and that we will support from such candidates, and regardless of party affiliations, to support the