

SPAIN.

Decline in the Divine Right Cause of King Carlos VII.—His Generals Leaving Their Commands and Deserters Asking Amnesty from the Republican Leaders.

TELEGRAMS TO THE NEW YORK HERALD.

MADRID, Oct. 1, 1873. The dissensions in the ranks of the Carlists are constantly increasing. The leaders Dorregaray, Roca and Lizarzaga have left their commands and arrived at Bayonne.

Demoralization in the Insurgent Lines. MADRID, Oct. 1, 1873. Hundreds of deserters from Cartagena are coming into the lines. They represent that demoralization and insubordination within the city are increasing. The majority of the deserters wish to surrender, but they are overawed by the liberated convicts and the more desperate portion of the volunteers.

MEXICO.

Compliments to Ex-Minister Nelson—President Lerdo Praising the United States—The Congress of 1873 Guarding the Sanctity of the Constitution—An Iron-Clad Oath for Legislators.

TELEGRAM TO THE NEW YORK HERALD.

CITY OF MEXICO, via Havana, Sept. 23, 1873. A farewell banquet was given to ex-Minister Nelson on the 15th inst. by Mr. Barrow. Sixty guests were present, among whom were the President of the Republic, the members of the Cabinet, Mr. Foster, the present Minister of the United States, and the chiefs of the foreign legations.

CUBA.

Madrid Sending a New Doctor to Prescribe for the Troubled Island—Enthusiastic Confidence of Cuban Spaniards in the National Government.

TELEGRAM TO THE NEW YORK HERALD.

HAVANA, Oct. 1, 1873. Señor Zulueta received a telegram from Madrid to-day from Señor Villamil, former Administrator of the Exchequer here, saying: "The government desires that I return to Cuba. Before accepting office again I must know if the people are determined to re-establish confidence and credit. I assure you that no violent measures will be taken respecting slavery or politics. The government acknowledging the Cuban debt, will you aid me in the work of improving the administration?"

Little Probability of a Reprieve for Captain Jack and His Braves—The Gallows Being Built for the Execution on Friday.

PORT KLAMATH, Oregon, 1 1/2 miles from the hanging of Captain Jack and his five other members of the Modoc tribe that were condemned to death by the Military Commission is now almost assured, as even should the electric wire flash a reprieve to Yreka, Ashland or Jacksonville, the carrier entrusted with its transportation to this place would, probably, meet with some unforeseen accident that would delay his arrival until the sure hand of justice had done its duty.

It may be very well for religious enthusiasts that have been born and bred in the quiet comfort of an Eastern home to preach mercy to the savage, but the safety and future peace and comfort of the residents of this section of the country requires a speedy and public example to be made of such treacherous murderers as Captain Jack and his five comrades proved themselves to be.

According to present arrangements the murderers are to be hung on Friday morning at ten o'clock, sharp, and to-day the carpenter drove the first nail in the structure that is being erected to meet the requirements of the sentence. They will all be suspended from one beam, and at the given signal will swing into eternity together. The execution will be public, in order to allow the Klamath and other neighboring Indians a full view of the manner in which the law of the United States is meted out to the transgressor.

SOUTH AND CENTRAL AMERICA.

PANA, Sept. 22, 1873.

Peru, besides complaining of no business and no money in the country, has had to put down again one of those revolutionary attempts which spring up now and then at different times and places. The movement was got up at Ayacucho by a man named Bedoya. He had got together some recruits and a large body of Morococha Indians, whose duties were to keep up an infernal din by blowing through cow horns.

Business is exceedingly dull throughout Peru. Several firms have failed. The banks refuse to discount, and scarcely any coin is in circulation.

On the 10th instant there were in the harbor of Callao fifteen steamers, all belonging to the Pacific Steam Navigation Company. The Lobos Islands are to be opened for vessels to go and load guano.

Tobacco is now grown to a great extent in Chili, and is of excellent quality. The new British Minister, Horace Kumbold, has been received by the President. Attempts are being made to introduce salmon into the rivers of Chili.

Political affairs in the city of Panama still continue in a disturbed and uncertain condition. Some 300 men are kept under arms in consequence of a large party of rebels against the existing government being in the woods near the city, which they threaten to come in and attack.

CENTRAL AMERICA.

Colombia.

PANA, Sept. 22, 1873. Political affairs in the city of Panama still continue in a disturbed and uncertain condition. Some 300 men are kept under arms in consequence of a large party of rebels against the existing government being in the woods near the city, which they threaten to come in and attack.

A few days ago a young man called Ojeda was killed on the Panama Railroad. The judges have taken the matter up, alleging that it was owing to the carelessness of the engineer in the better protection of foreigners and the property of the railroad transit.

The presence, however, of the Benicia and the Pacific Squadron, which arrived on the 15th inst, gave a sense of security in case of trouble.

The Republic of Honduras, under the administration of General Barrios, has every prospect of peace and progress. The clerical reactionary rebels have all been put down.

The Republic of Guatemala, under the administration of General Sherman, which threatened also the peace of Guatemala, having failed, leaves the country free from all disturbances.
