First Day of the Autumn Meeting.

SEVEN

RACES. CAPITAL

Large Attendance and General Enjoyment.

Yesterday marked the opening of the fall season of racing at Jerome Park. The day was not calas and fashion lend their aid to make a picture full of color and animation. It looked like rain, and therefore the fair sex did not show as numeronsly as if the bright and benignant weather of the day previous had blessed the opening. But it was pleasant, nevertheless, and the main stand and the club house, and the delightful quarterstretch promenade, with its soft, velvety carpet of green, were alive with well dressed people. he French pool, now a thoroughly acclimated institution of Jerome Park, and the seductive lerwood's pool reaped an abundant havest. The track was not in the condition sportingmen deem desirable. It was a trifle heavy with sand, yet not oo heavy to be an impediment. Such a day for racing was never before seen in the annals of Jerome Park. Seven really splendid races were run, and the style in which they were brought out shows that the American race course is every year approaching nearer and nearer the best Eng-

TYPOGRAPHICAL SOCIETY.

The New York Typographical Society held their regular semi-annual meeting on Saturday even-ing, at No. 3 Chambers street, which was well at-tended by the printers. Many interesting reports were presented by the Secretary and Treasurer, and the finances showed a surplus in the hands of the bankers. The late panic had not affected the affairs of the society, a lact which was considered providential to the craft. An exciting contest providential to the craft. An exciting contest took place on the election of Trustees, which finally resulted in the choice of Edward M. Skidmore and Archibald Miller. A Board of Directors was also elected, and forthwith entered upon their duties. Messrs, Gillespie and Fish made a report upon a bequest of the late Daniel Fanshaw, in which the deceased mentioned the society. The bequest, however, will be of no benefit to the society, and the committee were discharged from the further consideration of the subject.

WALL STREET, SATURDAY, Oct. 4-6 P. M.

The stock market to-day, after yielding tempo rarily to depression, incident to the announcement of one or two failures in mercantile circles, resumed its upward career, and prices reached the highest altitude of the week. The advance, however, has not been attended with those symptoms of permanent health calculated to restore confidence. Actual transactions were limited, while brokers labored very much as if they were under instructions to give to stocks all the "floor" value they would stand, it is to be feared that such a condition of affairs is both unsound and dangerous, because if reaction should suddenly follow and decline of four, six or eight per cent occur, the shock would not be so well sustained by half as that through which the community have just passed. While it is one of the AXIOMS OF WALL STREET that the higher prices go the more do people buy, it is, nevertheless, just as true that the purchasing element is at the present moment cramped and confined and kept at bay by the threatening attitude which the street always presents when the market is purely artificial. As we have said before, there is an abundance of money waiting for investment, but it has been scared too much by recent events to trust itself in another dark hole with a small outlet. An encouraging feature of the day has been a strong advance in

ply. A time has rarely presented itself when so much profit on a permanent investment has more promising than now. This is, of course, due to the confidence felt in this class of securities, and the practical value of which they are the representative. It is said that the German bankers, as well as our own banking institutions, have been large buyers to-day at the low rates. The closing quotations are as follows:--United States sixes, 1881 coupon, 114% a 115%; United States five-twenties, coupon, 1862, 108; United States five-twenties, coupon, 1864, 109; United States five-twenties. coupon, 1865, 110; United States five-twenties, oupon, 1865, new, 113%; United States five-twen ties, coupon, 1867, 11414; United States sixes, fivetwenties, coupon, 114%; United States ten-forties, coupon, 108%; new fives, 108%; Pacific sixes, 110%

THE FOREIGN MARKET. London advices by cable describe the foreign narket in American securities as strong, with "bears" buying to cover short interests. The rate discount in the open market for three months bills is 4% per cent, or % per cent below the Bank of England rate. The rate for money at the Stock Exchange on government securities is 2% per cent. Paris despatches quote rentes at 58f. 5c. The discount business was dull, in consequence of feverishness resulting from the one or two failures spoken of elsewhere. The dealings consummated were on the basis of 12 a 15 a 18 per cent. The premium on greenbacks to-day was & a % a 1 per cent. The volume of supply, however, is rapidly becoming equal to the demand. If matters go on smoothly from this time lorward an easy money market may be confidently expected. No weekly bank state-ment was made, because of the difficulty of presenting the condition growing out of the new and temporary Clearing House system that has been ficulty. At a meeting of the Loan Committee today the following resolution was passed:-

Resolved, That the Chairman of the committee request all banks which have taken out loan certificates to return and cancel them from day to day, as early as practicable, that the aggregate may be rapidly reduced.

The amount of $1,500,000 was cancelled to-day.

were more than usually active, vying with government securities in strength, and commanding attention because of the permanency of value which they appear to have preserved during the crisis. Prices to-day were generally well maintained. Central Pacifics were firm at 93 a 93)4, and the various Union Pacific issues in good de mand. THE SUSPENSION OF A DRY GOODS HOUSE was publicly announced during the day, and the report was not without effect upon the street, but it lost full force when it appeared that the firm had only been crippled from inability to make collections during the panic, and that its assets are fully half a million of dollars above its liabilities. DEPARTURE OF CUBAN PATRIOTS.

Scenes at the Wharf on the Sailing of the Steamer Atlas-General Ryan Taken on Board from the Clutches of a Sheriff's Officer.

One of those patriotic scenes which recall to memory the departure of our regiments from this city for the defence of the Union occurred yesterday at pier 12 North River, upon the occas some seventy Cuban patriots of all ages embarking on board the English mail steamer Atlas, for Kingston, Jamaica. It is reported that within three weeks the Virginius, which has acquired such fame of late as a blockade runner, will land them in the Eastern Department of Cuba, the point of departure being either Hayti or Samana Bay. took down the new captain of the Virginius, formerly of the Confederate navy, and several officers. The Virginius is a splendid craft, and was officers. The Virginius is a splendid craft, and was built for blockade running; and if Brigadier General Quesada takes charge of her on her present projected expedition success will, in all probability, crown his efforts. From noon crowds of sympathizers with the tyrannized "Gem of the Antilles" came down to the wharf to bid farewell to those near and dear to them, who were about to risk their lives for their country's redemption. Many Spaniards were there, who scowled flercely at the patriots and longed to see them executed as traitors. To the honor of that nation, however, it must be stated that two Spaniards joined the liberating expedition, one being Lieutenaut Francisco Bettino, formerly of the Spanish army in Cuba, while the other was a lad of some fitteen years.

and Deputy Boyland, who held him as a prisoner.

RELEASED AND ENLISTED.

Ryan was arrested during the day by John Boland, aided by detectives from Mooney's agency. The arrest was made on an old charge. It appears that the fillibuster about a year ago, was arrested on a charge preferred by a Mr. Taylor, in which the latter charged that Ryan had obtained $100 from him and got out an order of arrest, and one of Sheriff Jarvis' deputies arrrested him at the time. When the matter was brought up Ryan procured bail in the sum of $400, an admiral in the Cuban navy and a Dr. Skinner being bondsmen for him. These bonds were afterwards found to be worthless, but in the meantime Ryan had left for parts unknown and remained away one year. A few days go he returned, and, only passing through the city, went on to Washington. Understanding that he would be back yesterday Bolan had the train watched, and, following Ryan, arrested him on the corner of Broadway and Exchange place. He was atterwards taken before Judson Jarvis, who was about to hold him, when the lawyer of the plainitiff in the case made some compromise with Ryan, who departed on his way rejoicing.

As soon as the news was known that Ryan was in custody for debt a subscription was started, and within a few moments the required sum was obtained by the energy of Dr. Galvez and his wife. Among the contributors may be mentioned Mr. Luna, Mr. Arteagas, the treasurer of the "Amigos de Cuba;" Mr. Bermudez, Mr. Machado, and last, but not least, the well-known patriot, Mme. Villaverde, who presented the expedition a couple of weeks ago with their colors. The cheering was fairly deafening when it was ascertained that Ryan was iree, and many embraced him, forgetting the conduct of the man on the occasion of the Fanny expedition, and looking upon him as one of the old freinds of Cuba Live. The men of the expedition have been drilled by Lieutenant Bacunaya, sub-Lieu acted. Charles Cunningham was appointed keeper in the Penitentiary, in place of William Hunt, discharged; Edward Palconer keeper at the City Prison, in place of Charles Lindeman, resigned, and Thomas Hanan keeper in the Work House, in place of James Green, removed.

Mr. George Kellock, Superintendent of the Outdoor Poor, has his hands full of work. As the cold season advances shivering poverty comes to him in legions for relief. The commissioners do not distribute fuel until about the beginning of the new year. In the meantime the "Fuel Society for the Amelioration of the Poor," who have their visitors in every portion of the city, pay strict attention to the indigent and supply their wants. as the several cases merit.
