THE STATE CAPITAL.

Gossip About Havemeyer's Tenure of Office.

GOVERNOR DIX ON SALARIES.

Committees' Assistants and Their Pay-Courtesy to a United States Senate Committee-Too Late for the Gas Companies-Bills Ordered to a Third Reading.

ALBANY, May 5, '1873. The two houses reassembled this evening with a orum in each, most of the 'countrymen being on nd good and early, thanks to the "scare" given iem on Friday night, when a call of the House so convenient. The sensation about THE CHARTER "MUDDLE"

THE CHARTER "MUDDLE" Created a good deal of gossip on all sides, but it was generally conceded that Mayor Havemeyer is in no danger, inasmuch as the Dongan and Mont-gomery charters are not repealed by the new harter. The Montgomery charter provides that "the Mayor shall hold office until his successor shall be appointed and until he shall duly qualify." The Dongan and Montgomery charters are the fundamental law under which the city was incorpor-ated, and represent a law older than the constituusn of the country. VETOED.

The Governor returned with his veto to-night the bill to provide for the payment of the Clerk of the Third Judicial District Court. It will be obved that he bases his decision upon the opinion f Comptroller Green, and in this respect it will ossibly affect a large number of other bills of iewhat similar import. The message, by re-st of Senator Murphy, was allowed to lie over il to-morrow. The following is the message :--

The veto was laid on the table on request of Senator Murphy. SENATOR AMES, of the Sixteenth district, Essex county, ap-peared in his seat in the Senate to-night for the first time this session, having been sick at home ever since he was elected. He looks hearty, and took part with all his old fire in the proceedings to-night.

took part with all his old fire in the proceedings to-night. LEGALIZING TOWN BONDS. The evening was spent in discussing a bill to begalize all town bonds in which suits have not been commenced prior to sixty days after final confirmation by the County Judge. It was finally ordered to a third reading. COMMTTERS' ASSISTANTS AND THEIR PAY. Mr. Herrick, of the Committee on Grievances, offered a resolution in the House to pay one At-wood $750 for services as counsel to the commit-tee, and $4 a day for the services of a clerk and a sum for the pay of a stenographer. It leaked out that the committee had not been empowered to employ anybody, and it was shown by Mr. Husted that the law of 1863 required a concurrent resolution to authorize any committee to employ counsel, &c. This effectually squelched ther evolution about the object of which it is said there will be some rich developments soon. COURTERSY TO THE UNITED FIATES SENATE COMMITTER. Mr. Prince offered the following resolution, which was adopted:-
